

Warning for Exhibitors & Attendees:

NAN has been made aware of a third-party service provider by the name Exhibition Housing Services (EHS), which has contacted a number of companies and individuals who support and attend NAN's conference, citing NAN, to offer hotel reservation services and discounted rates.

PLEASE NOTE: Exhibition Housing Services is NOT affiliated in any way with NAN or the El Conquistador Resort. Exhibition Housing Services does not represent NAN, nor has NAN authorized them to use its name or trademarks on information they send out to NAN attendees and exhibitors.

If you are contacted by Exhibition Housing Services by phone or emails using NAN's name and offered hotel reservation services, do NOT sign anything sent by EHS or enter into any conversation with EHS by replying to any EHS emails sent from '@ehshousing.com.' EHS offers a pre-paid hotel reservation service and charges a booking fee in addition to the hotel price. Third-party companies, such as Exhibition Housing Services, will promise rooms in hotels where they do not actually have rooms reserved. There is the potential to be left without a room and to lose money paid in advance.

NAN has a room block reserved for NAN Conference participants at the El Conquistador Resort. All participants are encouraged to book directly through El Conquistador and within the established NAN block available online or by phone at 787-863-1000. NAN has not contracted with any third party contractor to secure hotel rooms.

NAN and the El Conquistador Resort cannot be held responsible for any losses if reservations are booked through a third party.
